2:15 pm – Depart for Sturbridge Village - Step into the charm of a candlelit 19th-century New England town at Sturbridge Village, where history and holiday spirit come to life. Explore on your own how Christmas was celebrated in the 1830s, 1850s, and 1870s. There will be a variety of demonstrations of traditional holiday baking and crafting along with storytelling, live music, and sweet holiday treats to sample along the way. Wander through a glowing landscape of over 85 decorated trees, 80+ handcrafted wreaths, miles of garland, and hundreds of flickering candles.

4:30 pm – Enjoy the highlight of the evening with the tree lighting ceremony, bringing the whole Village together in a warm holiday glow.

6 pm – Meet the bus and depart for the return drop offs in Springfield and then in Longmeadow.
